Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

As mentioned earlier about our main activities undertaken for the benefit in relation to our object, young persons have benefited immensely. An example is the well advised literacy and numeracy knowledge shared with young persons who sometimes, want to drop out of school and college. Our strategy to be available and support young persons with consent of their parents has made us realized our achievements within communities.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We as a charity have no liquid assets held by a bank or company. Our policy as charity is to support children and young persons into constructive social activities

Details of any funds materially in deficit

We do not have funds materially in deficit because we have not received public funds to support our work in communities. Rather our trustees have donated to us

Further financial review details (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
