OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Kind Aid International is a charitable, non profit organisation: exists and operates with fundamental belief in equality for all, regardless of race, age, gender or personal belief at local, national and international levels. Kind Aid International aims to promote better quality of life, health and education for all, administering life humanitarian aid to most needy of this world, using resources and natural abilities of individuals at local, national and the international levels. It is hoped that applied empathy and compassionate understanding, will foster the future independence of those who are presently in great need, where ever they are.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

We work with Kurdish based charity called Islamic Kurdish League (IKL) IKL sends us a list of orphans who need sponsors with their details from Kurdistan and we take the task of finding people sponsors in UK and abroad to sponsor them. The money collected during the year has been sent to our partners in Dehok-Kurdistan of Iraq to be spent on around 320 orphans through branches in Kurdistan. Every six months we receive reports for each individual orphan confirming that the money has been spent on them.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

During the year, donations made by donors of Kind Aid International totalled £145,421 for the Kind Aid Kids scheme which is run in conjunction with Islamic Kurdish League. Donations were also collected for the Hana project which was set up to help families caring for family members who have had long term illnesses or disabilities. Kind Aid International donated £30,787 for this project.

The Charity derives its income from benevolent donors via brochures to the public (Kind Aid International Website: www.kindaid.org), allotment of collection boxes in retail units all over GB and performing charity dinners.

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the trustees have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

the trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with Charities Act 1993. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

We have audited the financial statements of Kind Aid International Charity for the year ended 31 December 2017 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet, and the related notes. The financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out therein.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRUSTEES AND AUDITORS

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

We have been appointed as auditors under section 43 of the Charities Act 1993 and report in accordance with regulations made under that Act. Our responsibility is to audit the accordance with financial statements in relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 1993. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the information given in Trustees' Annual Report is not consistent with those financial statements, if the agreement with these accounting records or if charity has not kept sufficient accounting records, if the charity's financial statements are not in agreement with these accounting records or if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

We read the Trustees' Annual Report and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements within it.

BASIS OF OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence amounts and relevant to the disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the trustees in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed. We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.
