- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity was founded by its director who acts as the administrator, fundraiser and oversees the programs, the charity is governed by its board of trustees.

Policies and procedures are drawn up by the director and agreed on and adopted by the board or trustees.

The charities current policies and procedures include: Child Protection policy, Vulnerable Adults protection policy, Safeguarding policy, Conflict of Interest policy, Risk management policy, Code of Conduct.

All board members are made fully aware of any connection between trustees or senior management of the charity. Trustee, Yogpadma Jain, received payment for her work with the charity last year but no longer does. The decision on allowing this commission was agreed by remaining unbiased trustees. The decision to stop paying this trustee for her work was based on her unavailability to continue the work.
