Objects and structure

Forever Active's charitable objects are to preserve and protect the good health of people over 50 in the City of Cambridge and the County of Cambridgeshire by:

- (1) providing a broad range of exercise, physical activities and sporting opportunities for residents of the City of Cambridge and the County of Cambridgeshire aged 50 years or more;
- (2) making such provision for such persons who have long term medical conditions or are vulnerable adults;
- (3) co-operating with other bodies in developing such provision;
- (4) providing training for participants in such activities and persons acting as leaders or instructors in relation to such activities; and
- (5) contributing to the education of the general public as to the benefits of life-long physical exercise.

Forever Active was originally set up by Cambridge City Council in 2006 to provide evidence based exercise sessions for the 50+ age group and those returning to a more active lifestyle. In 2012 it became an independent organisation as a company limited by guarantee. At the end of 2014 it achieved charity status.

Forever Active has a Board of Directors; the directors are also trustees of the registered charity. All the Board members are volunteers and receive no fees for their work. When it first became an independent organisation, the Board continued its established pattern of monthly meetings. It now meets quarterly, with a Management Group meeting monthly between Board meetings. There are also ad hoc task force groups dealing with specific matters.

Forever Active has no employees. It engages qualified instructors who receive fees for each class they take. It has also engaged a part time database officer to support the day to day operations of the organisation's online database system. The database is an integral part of the business in terms of class management, monitoring and evaluation.

The year in review

The basic facts: by the end of the year 726 people had become members of Forever Active compared to 702 the previous year with some 21 thousand attendees across our classes which was an increase of some 10% compared to the 19 thousand attendances in the previous 12 months. But while encouraging, these statistics are the tip of an iceberg of hard work, effort, and above all loyalty on the part of our members, instructors, partner organisations, the board of Director/Trustees and others on the Forever Active team. this was the second year of Forever Active's expansion into wider Cambridgeshire.

There are now a number of well-established classes -- mostly strength and balance - -in South Cambs and East Cambs, and several classes have also been launched in the more remote Fenland area. Nearly 20 classes were started in the county during the year and at present some 15 of these classes are still running. our Development Officer funded by the County Council, Jane Jones, has brought tireless enthusiasm to the task of enabling more people to benefit from what Forever Active has to offer. The development of the "Stronger for Longer" campaign by Cambridgeshire County Council is driving class growth in the county and Forever Active are proud to have been selected as a very active partner in the campaign.

In Cambridge city, class attendance has been growing: some classes which reached the maximum number of participants (the limit tends to be size of venue) have been cloned so now two are offered back to back. At the other end of the scale, we agreed to work with the City Council on a new scheme to encourage more people living in target wards to come to our classes. Cambridge Co-ordinator Davina Mee, who also looks after the interests of instructors, has been active in trouble-shooting and nurturing where appropriate.

There is no substitute for personal involvement at the grass roots to help things to run smoothly. The Board of Forever Active had seven members at the end of the year, having had to accept, reluctantly, the resignation of Helen Robbins who set up Forever Active as an arm of the City Council a decade and a half ago. We were delighted when she agreed to sign up as a cover instructor, so some city classes may see her in action again. Other Board members have continued in their various roles. Without them the organisation simply could not exist. It may seem invidious to single anyone out, but Anne Johnson deserves special thanks for dealing with membership applications and renewals so efficiently, supported by Jenny Hayes who looks after the all-important database and website.

The annual accounts, included in this document, show a financial picture which may well look gloomy from the perspective of the bottom line. However, the size of the deficit is almost entirely the result of the irregular timing of the grant income that supports the development activity included in the accounts within the term 'administration'. As regards current activities, Forever Active is much closer to balancing its books. Class fees broadly cover hall hire and instructors' fees, while the membership fee, which is kept deliberately as low as possible, meets most of our (very modest) management costs. Inevitably there have been failures: classes not achieving a viable number of participants; instructors leaving and replacements not being available; problems in communication resulting in frustration all round. We were sorry when a long-standing partnership enabling us to offer golf sessions came to an end. Thanks are due to Bob Barnes for facilitating those sessions and generally supporting Forever Active over many years. and finally: all of us who are involved in Forever Active are proof of the many research projects that show how important it is to exercise regularly with other like-minded people. This is why we encourage everyone to keep up the good work and to bring their friends.

Looking ahead

Forever Active is always anxious to expand the range of classes it offers, and to make access to them as easy as possible. This policy drives the development of Forever Active in new localities and one of the new initiatives is to work with residential homes in organising classes for their residents. we are delighted with the Stronger for Longer initiative being undertaken this year by Cambridgeshire County Council and the close cooperation that has developed as a result. Members may have seen that Forever Active was able to get television coverage as a result of this activity and we thank Davina Mee for representing our interests in those broadcasts.

The Forever Active Board recognises the need to secure continued funding for the successful work in county areas outside Cambridge city, now in its third year, and also to increase our general income. There are local and national bodies that make grants to charities such as Forever Active, and the Board is seeking to tap these sources. We encourage members to let us know of any funding opportunities they know about or to which they may have access. some of our members may be able to make an individual donation to Forever Active or to give a legacy towards its continued work. we have been reviewing our financial processes and are currently setting up a new system which should make this vital "back room" activity easier for the small group of volunteers who sustain it and also improve our service to members and instructors.

Objects and structure

Forever Active's charitable objects are to preserve and protect the good health of people over 50 in the City of Cambridge and the County of Cambridgeshire by:

- (1) providing a broad range of exercise, physical activities and sporting opportunities for residents of the City of Cambridge and the County of Cambridgeshire aged 50 years or more;
- (2) making such provision for such persons who have long term medical conditions or are vulnerable adults;
- (3) co-operating with other bodies in developing such provision;
- (4) providing training for participants in such activities and persons acting as leaders or instructors in relation to such activities; and
- (5) contributing to the education of the general public as to the benefits of life-long physical exercise.

Forever Active was originally set up by Cambridge City Council in 2006 to provide evidence based exercise sessions for the 50+ age group and those returning to a more active lifestyle. In 2012 it became an independent organisation as a company limited by guarantee. At the end of 2014 it achieved charity status.

Forever Active has a Board of Directors; the directors are also trustees of the registered charity. All the Board members are volunteers and receive no fees for their work. When it first became an independent organisation, the Board continued its established pattern of monthly meetings. It now meets quarterly, with a Management Group meeting monthly between Board meetings. There are also ad hoc task force groups dealing with specific matters.

Forever Active has no employees. It engages qualified instructors who receive fees for each class they take. It has also engaged a part time database officer to support the day to day operations of the organisation's online database system. The database is an integral part of the business in terms of class management, monitoring and evaluation.

The year in review

The basic facts: by the end of the year 726 people had become members of Forever Active compared to 702 the previous year with some 21 thousand attendees across our classes which was an increase of some 10% compared to the 19 thousand attendances in the previous 12 months. But while encouraging, these statistics are the tip of an iceberg of hard work, effort, and above all loyalty on the part of our members, instructors, partner organisations, the board of Director/Trustees and others on the Forever Active team. this was the second year of Forever Active's expansion into wider Cambridgeshire.

There are now a number of well-established classes -- mostly strength and balance - -in South Cambs and East Cambs, and several classes have also been launched in the more remote Fenland area. Nearly 20 classes were started in the county during the year and at present some 15 of these classes are still running. our Development Officer funded by the County Council, Jane Jones, has brought tireless enthusiasm to the task of enabling more people to benefit from what Forever Active has to offer. The development of the "Stronger for Longer" campaign by Cambridgeshire County Council is driving class growth in the county and Forever Active are proud to have been selected as a very active partner in the campaign.

In Cambridge city, class attendance has been growing: some classes which reached the maximum number of participants (the limit tends to be size of venue) have been cloned so now two are offered back to back. At the other end of the scale, we agreed to work with the City Council on a new scheme to encourage more people living in target wards to come to our classes. Cambridge Co-ordinator Davina Mee, who also looks after the interests of instructors, has been active in trouble-shooting and nurturing where appropriate.

There is no substitute for personal involvement at the grass roots to help things to run smoothly. The Board of Forever Active had seven members at the end of the year, having had to accept, reluctantly, the resignation of Helen Robbins who set up Forever Active as an arm of the City Council a decade and a half ago. We were delighted when she agreed to sign up as a cover instructor, so some city classes may see her in action again. Other Board members have continued in their various roles. Without them the organisation simply could not exist. It may seem invidious to single anyone out, but Anne Johnson deserves special thanks for dealing with membership applications and renewals so efficiently, supported by Jenny Hayes who looks after the all-important database and website.

The annual accounts, included in this document, show a financial picture which may well look gloomy from the perspective of the bottom line. However, the size of the deficit is almost entirely the result of the irregular timing of the grant income that supports the development activity included in the accounts within the term 'administration'. As regards current activities, Forever Active is much closer to balancing its books. Class fees broadly cover hall hire and instructors' fees, while the membership fee, which is kept deliberately as low as possible, meets most of our (very modest) management costs. Inevitably there have been failures: classes not achieving a viable number of participants; instructors leaving and replacements not being available; problems in communication resulting in frustration all round. We were sorry when a long-standing partnership enabling us to offer golf sessions came to an end. Thanks are due to Bob Barnes for facilitating those sessions and generally supporting Forever Active over many years. and finally: all of us who are involved in Forever Active are proof of the many research projects that show how important it is to exercise regularly with other like-minded people. This is why we encourage everyone to keep up the good work and to bring their friends.

Looking ahead

Forever Active is always anxious to expand the range of classes it offers, and to make access to them as easy as possible. This policy drives the development of Forever Active in new localities and one of the new initiatives is to work with residential homes in organising classes for their residents. we are delighted with the Stronger for Longer initiative being undertaken this year by Cambridgeshire County Council and the close cooperation that has developed as a result. Members may have seen that Forever Active was able to get television coverage as a result of this activity and we thank Davina Mee for representing our interests in those broadcasts.

The Forever Active Board recognises the need to secure continued funding for the successful work in county areas outside Cambridge city, now in its third year, and also to increase our general income. There are local and national bodies that make grants to charities such as Forever Active, and the Board is seeking to tap these sources. We encourage members to let us know of any funding opportunities they know about or to which they may have access. some of our members may be able to make an individual donation to Forever Active or to give a legacy towards its continued work. we have been reviewing our financial processes and are currently setting up a new system which should make this vital "back room" activity easier for the small group of volunteers who sustain it and also improve our service to members and instructors.
