West Ox Arts Annual General Meeting 4th September 2019

Chair's Report Year ending 31st March 2019

Firstly, a warm welcome and thank you for taking the time to come to the AGM, we appreciate it. Our AGM is an important opportunity for you to hear what the committee have done in your name, the successes and challenges of the year and our plans for the coming year. This report covers the activities for the WOA year from 1st April 2018 to 31st March 2019.

During this time we have held 11 exhibitions and the Great Art Sale. We started in April with 'Beyond Observation' where Nicki Heenan and Sally Wyatt came together to exhibit work expressing themes about nature and atmosphere in a new and exciting way. For Oxfordshire Artweeks the gallery was filled to the brim with oil paintings from the C21 Group, along with sculpture and ceramics. Adopting a new approach, where artists were required to have their own listings in the Artweeks catalogue, along with a number of local artists participating from their own sites and a trail map meant that Bampton stood out as an Artweeks destination. Adopting the same approach this year has cemented that success and the feedback from exhibiting Artists and the public was very positive.

The Brunel Broderers filled the galley with stunning textiles for 'Underpinning' in June and that was followed by a solo show in July, 'A painter's life after Downton' by our very own Pip Shuckburgh. Once again, our Contemporary Arts and Crafts exhibition filled the gallery in August and this was followed in September by our members exhibition exploring 'Food'.

'Curvilinear' by Tracey Florence and Sally Dorrity put together photography and ceramics in an extremely effective way during October followed in November with Andrew Forkner's solo wildlife exhibition 'A Natural Perspective'. We closed the year with our traditional and very popular Christmas Arts and Crafts, we have an incredibly talented and diverse membership whose work is very much appreciated by our loyal customers.

Once again, our members came good with a fabulous selection of donations for the Great Sale and we thank you all. February saw a departure from themed members exhibition with the cleverly entitled 'New Work', we were blown away by the number of entries and sales which exceeded, by far, any members exhibition for many years. Our final exhibition of the year was 'Glass' which brought together 7 diverse artists and a fabulous selection of work, which judging by sales the public loved too.

The, very small, exhibitions team have done an excellent job in building a diverse program, putting in many, many hours behind the scenes, corresponding with and meeting artists and then many days hanging and taking down each exhibition. My thanks go to the whole team for the time they have devoted and in particular to Nik Stanbridge who led the team and has brought about many changes to improve the process.

As well as holding exhibitions in the gallery we also have access to the Vesey Room, in the Old Grammar School in Bampton for three, two-month, art and craft exhibitions a year. These are selling opportunities for artists with small, giftable type work as the customers are mainly tourists visiting Bampton as part of a Downton Abbey tour. A big thank you to Sally Proctor for her hard work behind the scenes making this all happen, the commission from these sales make a significant and valuable contribution to WOA.

For the second year in a row we have made significant improvements to the gallery, our new hanging system has made hanging exhibitions infinitely easier and has been warmly welcomed by everyone involved, not least the walls of this Grade II listed building which could not have taken much more abuse with a hammer! Our new lighting system looks great, is cheaper to run and we no longer have to hit bulbs with a broom handle to stop them flickering. We have improved our security with the introduction of a key safe thereby reducing the number of key holders to the gallery and a safe for sensitive documents and cash. The introduction of music in the gallery was so successful that we have renewed our PRS licence so that it can continue.

However, all of this has been achieved despite this being an extremely difficult year for the staff and trustees at WOA. After being with us for only 4 months our exhibitions Manager Julia Harvey was desperately sad to leave us in December due to family reasons, we were very pleased that she continued to help us remotely until her replacement was recruited.

Jenn Hussle moved from a temporary position to take on the role of exhibitions manager and stayed with us until last month. At Easter our long-standing member of staff Fiona West was suddenly admitted to hospital and has been on sick leave ever since. We send Fiona our love and best wishes as she continues her treatment for cancer and are expecting her to be returning to the WOA family in the new year. We have been fortunate to find excellent temporary staff cover but as you can imagine each new person requires training and takes time to learn the ropes. Finally, me taking four months sick leave earlier in the year left an already under resourced committee, a further person down.

In order to survive every organisation has to change and evolve and WOA is no exception. This year changes have been made that have not been to everyone's liking. We acknowledge that the way we communicated the changes to life drawing in the gallery could have been done in a more sensitive way and we regret that we were not able to find an immediate solution to providing life drawing classes for WOA members. On a positive note I understand that this may change soon. Sometimes success brings its own challenges, a number of members were upset that their favourite work was not hung for 'New Work' due to the large number of entries. Taking this on board we changed our submission process for Earth, Air, Fire and Water asking you to mark your 'reserve' piece on your entry form. This accidently resulted in a few pieces reaching the catalogue with the word reserve after the title, swiftly followed by a strongly worded email from an affected member pointing out that this made it look like the work for not for sale. We're sorry we're not perfect and we're volunteers!

To my team this year I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks, at our toughest moments you were rock solid in your support, together we have moved WOA forward and have made some small and some large changes for the better. To Nik, Natalie, Sonja, Sue and Jo who are standing down, thank you for taking your turn on the committee and making a difference in your own ways. To Pip and Laura who are staying on, a very big thank you as I know both of you are digging deep.

Earlier in the summer, when it became clear how many of the current committee were standing down, along with the resignation of both of our staff within a few weeks it became clear that there was a very real possibility that WOA would be closing. Our first email asking for committee member elicited almost no response and working our way through members who had expressed an interest in standing in the past was drawing blanks. As you know we stopped asking nicely for help and told it how it was! We are all extremely relieved and grateful to those of you who have stepped up to keep WOA going.

As I come to the end of my 2-year term as chair and 3 years as a trustee I wish the new team every success. Be bold, be courageous, there is still much to do, you can make a difference. Finally, I have received enormous support and encouragement from many of you and quite honestly without it I would not have survived this year. So, thank you, you know who you are.

Sue Turner Chair West Ox Arts 4th September 2019 Treasurer report – Year ending march 31st 2019

I'll start thanking Nigel Wallis who like previous years checked the accounts He has told me that after many years of acting as independent examiner is going to retire. I'll miss his help and advise.

The 2018-2019 financial year has been challenging.

We had to comply with the Data Protection Act . It meant changes in our procedures as well as expenses for consultancy, secure disposal of documents and purchase of equipment like the safe and the cross cutter shredder (about £314)

Our biggest expense is staff salaries and this was compounded by extra expenses for change over of staff (about £730)

In January we saw the installation of the new lighting system which was founded by the Birkhead Trusts. The grant of £6,000 included fund for the making good of the ceiling. The arrangement with the decorator failed twice and the money reserved is still in our restricted funds.

A total of £974 was spent for the installation of the hanging system which proved essential for the current demanding schedule of exhibitions.

We operated in volatile economic climate. I am sure it contributed to some of the exhibitions not having the success of footfall and sales they deserved.

At the beginning of November we could see a downward spiral emerging in the income from exhibitions.

The success of the Xmas Fair and of the two exhibitions in February (New work, a members' exhibition) and March (Glass), which featured a new fee structure and format, readdressed the situation leaving us with an operative loss of £601.

We are grateful to the Bampton parish Council for a grant of £650 and to the Bampton Community community shop for a grant of £1,000 to improve signage.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEE'S OF WEST OX ARTS

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 March 2018, which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and related notes.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act);
   under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act);
- · to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
  - b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEE'S OF WEST OX ARTS

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 March 2018, which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and related notes.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act);
   under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- · to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
  - b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
