Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:
•	Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees.	The Trustees of The Thriplow Charitable Trust are responsible for holding the capital and income of the Trust Fund upon trust to apply the income and all or such part or parts of the capital at such time or times and in such manner as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion think fit for or towards the charitable
•	The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works.	objects and in accordance with the Trust Deed. The Trustees actively review the major risks which the charity faces on a regular basis and believe that maintaining reserves at the levels stated will provide sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions.
•	Relationship with any related parties.
•	Trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	The object of The Thriplow Charitable Trust is the advancement of higher and further education (whether in or in connection with universities, university colleges, colleges and other places of learning or otherwise) and the promotion of research and the dissemination of the results of such research.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	The Trustees meet regularly to consider and approve grants payable and to ensure that the management is effective.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:		The Trust does not ordinarily make grants to individuals.
•`	Policy on grantmaking
•	Policy programme related investment
•	Contribution made by Volunteers

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year	The Trustees have continued in their objectives of the advancement of higher and further education and the promotion of research by making a number of grants to suitable applicants during the year. Applications for funds are received by the Secretary and those which qualify for grants are submitted to the twice yearly Trustee meetings. The income generated by the capital of the Trust is used to fund these grants.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The Trustees aim to maintain free reserves (non-interest bearing cash reserves which are not held as investments) at a level which equates to approximately three months expenditure. The trustees consider that this level will provide sufficient funds to cover current activities in the short term should income from the investments drop significantly for any reason. At the year end there were more than sufficient unrestricted non-interest bearing cash reserves to cover this amount.

Details of any funds materially in deficit Further financial review details	(Optional information)
 You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about: The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising). How expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity. 	The secretary of the Trust is paid £1,800 quarterly (£7,200 p.a.). The fee for the quarter to 31 March 2018 was paid after 5 April 2018. Consequently 5 payments have been included in the year ended 5 April 2019. The Trustees have wide investment powers and all the investments made during the year fall within these powers. The portfolio of investments is held in a custodian service provided and managed by Quilter Cheviot.
 Investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
