You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:		The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those relating to its investments and its finances. The trustees believe that by ensuring controls exist over key financial systems incorporating Coutts & Co's systems and controls, and by
•	policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;	delegating the investment management function to investment managers, subject to regular monitoring, including periodic reviews of performance against benchmark, they have established effective systems to mitigate those risks.
•	the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
•	relationship with any related parties;
•	trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Deed of Settlement authorises the trustees to apply the income or the capital to or for the benefit of such exclusively charitable objects and purposes in any part of the world as the trustees may in their absolute discretion think fit.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)	The Trust achieves this object by the provision of grants. In determining the means by which the Trust shall achieve its object, the trustees have had regard to the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission. During the year under review the Trust awarded 5 Grants ranging in value from £2,250 to £7,000 to a range of charitable organisations. In the opinion of the trustees the Trust, by making grants only to charitable organisations which are themselves for the benefit of the public, is fulfilling its own obligation to deliver public benefit in the furtherance of its object. The Sum of £26,797 has been expended from the endowment funds and for Charity Commission accounting purposes is now classed as income.
