Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of public education in the arts and sciences and in particular the art and science of music, drama and poetry, by the organisation of festivals at St Endellion in the County of Cornwall, and such other charitable purposes as the Trustees in their discretion shall from time to time think fit.

During the relevant period the Trust organised two classical music festivals in St Endellion.

From 31 March to 8 April the 45th St Endellion Easter Festival took place, during which a "Come and Sing" event was held (enabling members of the public to participate in a performance of Fauré's Requiem), 9 concerts were performed by Festival participants (including chamber concerts, choral and orchestral concerts, a jazz concert, a baroque concert and two performances of Handel's Messiah), on each weekday morning a 10 minute "Thought For The Day" talk was given by a variety of Cornish residents and Festival participants, and the Festival chorus sang at two services in St Endellion Church (Choral Evensong on Easter Day and at the Festival Eucharist).

From 31 July to 10 August the 60th St Endellion Summer Festival was held. It featured 11 performances by Festival participants (including chamber concerts, choral and orchestral concerts, a Broadway musical concert and two semi-staged performances of Berlioz's La Damnation de Faust) in addition to the Festival chorus singing at two services (Choral Evensong and Sung Eucharist) in St Endellion Church.

All of these events were open to the public, some being free of charge. In putting on these concerts, talks, "Come & Sing" events and so on, the Trustees endeavour to further the Charity's objects, in particular the advancement of public education in the art of music. The Trustees kept in mind the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when making decisions in respect of the Trust's activities.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D Achievements and performance As explained above, the Charity organised two classical music Festivals Summary of the main in St Endellion, Cornwall. Some of the performances took place in other achievements of the charity local venues, including St Kew Church and Truro Cathedral. All of the during the year events in each Festival were well supported by the public; in addition, members of the public were able to attend (at no cost) some of the choral and orchestral rehearsals held in St Endellion Church. Each Festival comprised volunteer participants (60 – 70 choir members. 50 – 70 orchestra members, soloists, conductors and some 40 support team members); none of the participants (including many professional musicians) is paid for performing in the Festivals. In addition, the Trustees continued their efforts to support the PCC of St Endellion Church in its fund-raising for the modernisation and enlargement of the St Endellion Church Hall, which is used extensively during the Festivals as a rehearsal space and audience refreshment venue.

| Section E   | Financial review  |
