Section C: Objectives and activities:

Supporting the rebuilding houses project for the victims of Earthquakes and promoting and protecting children's right and supporting homeless/street children to come out from the street society and join the main stream society in Nepal. CSN has continued to develop its partnerships with local organisation in Nepal that promote and Protect the rights of children and elderly people with disabilities. In particular we have supported projects promoting the right to education, work and employment and inclusion in the community. We have supported partners to carry out sessions raising awareness of the rights of people with disabilities in the communities where they work. CSN has continued to develop its partnership with like-minded organisations to relieve poverty.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information):

Our volunteers and supporters have continued to support CSN with its activities, namely with fundraising events and awareness activities. When planning and executing our activities, we abided by the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Section D: Achievements and performance

Over the course of the years, we have achieved the following: We have fostered a new partnership with the organisations Common ground and Child Right Protection Centre Nepal. We awarded them a grant to promote early intervention and expand the inclusion of children especially from street and with disabilities in education. Provide much need love and care for those homeless, orphan and abused children in a family environment. To achieve this, Child Right Protection Centre Nepal have enrolled 10 disadvantaged children into school and Common Ground has been working tirelessly to support the rebuilding projects in the remote the village of Nepal with the support of CSN. We have also continued to work on developing various organisational policies together with CRPC and CG. We have followed up on the use of grants awarded to our partners through monitoring and evaluation reports produced by our partners and assessments of the impact of our grants. We have begun to accept donations on our website via direct Virgin money giving. We have continued to sale Christmas cards printed and handmade on Nepali paper to raise funds for our work. We have continued to identify potential sources of funding for our work and have begun to develop project proposals with our partners. CSN has complied with the duty in section 17(5) of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard on public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Section E: Financial review

Community Support Nepal does not have a reserve policy however it is necessary to have some funds in the charity's account to finance the fundraising activities hence we keep a small amount in the account but it can be changed as and when required.

We are a charity which works for the benefit of the victims of great earthquakes of 2015 in the remote village of Nepal. We also work for the benefit of the homeless and abandoned children and their families in Kathmandu and Sidhuli in Nepal. We exist to provide resources and facilities to meet the needs of victims of earthquakes and to provide better future for the street, orphans, and abandoned children in Kathmandu and Sidhuli. I am delighted to be able to report that very many people taking part to support the both projects by contributed goods such as computing and clothes directly to the beneficiaries. We have been able to send grants to support the care and education of children and village rebuilding programme as well. We continue to aim to raise much needed funds to fulfil our charitable aims and strategy for meeting the needs of children through our close partnership with Child Protection Right Centre also to meet and complete the rebuilding project in the village along side our partner common Ground. Your donations made this work possible and your future donations are the key to our continuing success. By providing a home, health education and a family today you bring joy to the life of those Children today. By investing in children today you invest in our community's future in a real sense.

I am pleased to be able to produce this 2nd report as a trustee of the Community Support Nepal and I would like to thank the volunteers,' supporters and well wishers who gave ideas, attend fundraising activities and help us to chive our aims. I hope that like me you will be inspired by our plans to help children live fulfilling and healthy lives and become a responsible citizen of the our planet earth and I want you to be a part of our story.
