Sudden Productions www.suddenproductions.co.uk

Registered Charity No 1018887

Sudden Productions has been in existence since 1993 and has been committed to bringing its productions to those who have limited access to conventional theatre and film-making in Birmingham and the West Midlands. The charity's community programmes deliver social, emotional, physical and educational benefits to young participants. Our core sectors are:

Inclusion: Working with marginalized groups with a keen focus on integration and supporting social cohesion; Education: Developing confidence and communication, and improving behaviour and attitudes to learning; Health: Effecting positive improvements in mental and physical health; Professional Development: Helping to develop the careers of young talents.

We have a track record of educational plays, films, exhibitions, and workshops. Sudden Productions work exclusively with children and young people and produce projects with a focus on the difficult issues and challenges that young people face today. Over the past years we have covered important issues such as racism, homelessness, juvenile delinquency, bullying, unemployment, etc.

Most workshops and performances we offer schools, voluntary groups, youth centres are entirely free. In some places we do charge a very minimum fee (if distant and/or if there is a lot time involved). Our free work gives many disadvantaged young people the chance to benefit from our projects. We work with young people coming off drugs and others attending rehab units, probation centres, pupil referral units social services, and young people off the streets (Homeless) each year and create partnerships with voluntary organizations, youth offending teams, local authorities, statutory bodies, etc on each project we deliver.

1996 revised in 2005. A new Constitution was adopted by	Stephen Bradbury	Birmingham

Objectives and activities:

A. Promote, improve develop and maintain public education in, and appreciation of, the art and science of drama in all its aspects by the presentation in public of plays and by such other ways as the society through its committee shall from time to time determine.

B. Educate young people in order to develop their physical, mental and spiritual capacities so that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and as members of society.

Highlights and acknowledgment from the Director

They made it funny and educational! Yessss! Loved it! These are words that young people have used to describe the impact of programs supported by Sudden Productions this year.

We know that Theatre In Education sets up young people for success by helping them become more well-rounded, empathetic, collaborative, confident, and a myriad of other personal qualities needed to improve the world today. At Sudden Productions, we support the performing arts through making, teaching, or enjoying issue-based theatre. Sudden Productions was created to support young people, youth leaders and teachers who aren't fortunate to have the same opportunities than others, whether they come from socially and economically deprived areas; or from communities which generally have half the access to arts education than their peers. Every child or young person in Birmingham and the West Midlands deserves access to quality theatre and all that it has to offer in their school or community centre. That's why Sudden Productions are here!

During the Year ended April 2019, Sudden Productions delivered 16 Main events (Performances & workshops) of Fearful (Knife crime awareness), The Edge (Teenage Suicide Awareness), Out Loud (Climate Change Awareness), Lucy: Young and Homeless as well as facilitating drama workshops on the issues at hand. We also had a residency in St Basils (Youth Hostel) in April with The Edge (Teenage Suicide Awareness). We designed educational packages & awareness campaigns for schools and youth centres (Love Trap which creates an awareness of Child Sexual Abuse and Grooming, The Edge, Lucy: Young and Homeless & Out Loud)

Sudden Productions will continue to work on Lucy: Young and Homeless in 2020. The company will also continue to develop & will tour schools and youth centres with Fearful, The Edge and Love Trap in 2020 and 2021.

In 2021 and 2022, Sudden Productions are already planning to design a project focusing on the role of Mindfulness in education. Anxiety and depression in children and young people have risen by 48% since 2004. Mindfulness-based stress reduction techniques and mindfulness-based educational programs provide social and emotional learning for young people. In addition, mindfulness-based programs help to improve behaviour and academic achievement. 2019 was a fantastic year and we are looking forward to the future with a series of new hard-hitting theatre in education productions and new partnerships as well as fresh collaborations with artists!

With gratitude,

Nowell Wallace Director, Sudden Productions

Out Loud

OUT LOUD consisted of a stage play and drama workshops and raises awareness of Climate Change. OUT LOUD was premiered on the 10th April at 2PM at mac and reached 500 young people through 10 school performances in April and May 2019. A self-explanatory educational pack and a campaign to raise awareness of climate change was sent to our date base of 150 contacts (teachers and youth leaders in Birmingham and the West Midlands).

Feedback from teachers

"I really enjoyed the play. I was entertained and felt that it was pitched at the right level. Several pupils said afterwards just how good it was. The use language was appropriate. Having a young cast worked very well. And making the play interactive worked well."

" Excellent content covered in the play - it was considering climate change as a whole and this was thought provoking for students. They felt passionate about the topic afterwards which encouraged them to create their own performance based on climate change. The characters were clear and they liked the relevance of 'Jordan' as a character as they could identify with him."

"Just wanted to say a big thank you from all of us at BGGS for the fantastic production on climate change. The girls thoroughly enjoyed the play, they found it very though provoking and I am sure we will be having some interesting follow up discussions. It was a very topical subject and gave us all some great food for thought on our personal responsibilities in being mindful of climate change."

"I thoroughly enjoyed the production. It was cleverly produced in that key messages/statistics on climate change were delivered with accuracy as well as appropriate humour to the age range of our GCSE students. The stage play most definitely promoted interest amongst our students, which was demonstrated by the range of students that answered questions during the play. Students enjoyed the play and displayed a range of emotions throughout such as amusement and inspiration. Students are now able to recall ways that humans have contributed to climate change as well as outlining different methods which could be implemented to manage the impacts of climate change locally, regionally, nationally and globally."

Fearful

FEARFUL consists, on the screening of a short film followed by a stage play (using the same characters) and a participatory drama workshop (young people are asked to improvise on situations related to knife crime).

FEARFUL reached 316 young people through 11 performances in April 2019 in community centres in Birmingham most economically and socially deprived areas. A self-explanatory educational pack and a campaign to raise awareness of knife rime was sent to our date base of 150 contacts (teachers and youth leaders in Birmingham and the West Midlands). The project continue will continue in 2020 and 2021.

Feedback from young people

"I learnt that its more likely to get stabbed if you have your own (knife)"

"Don't use knives!"

"It felt real and I loved the debate" "I got to express myself about knife crime!" "I felt that I could share stuff"

"It showed why it is not good to carry a knife"

"I was quite concerned to learn that young people are still carrying weapons to feel safe" "It was an opportunity to speak to someone new and discuss knife crime"

Love Trap

LOVE TRAP consists, on the screening of a short film followed by a stage play (using the same characters) and a participatory drama workshop. A self-explanatory educational pack and a campaign to raise awareness of Child sexual abuse and grooming was sent to our date base of 150 contacts (teachers and youth leaders in Birmingham and the West Midlands). LOVE TRAP will tour youth centres and schools in 2020 and 2021.

The Edge

We delivered 4 main performances of THE EDGE in April 2019. We had a residency at St Basils in Birmingham working with young people with multiple difficulties (homelessness, mental health issues, addiction, etc). A self-explanatory educational pack and a campaign to raise awareness of Teenage Suicide was sent to our date base of 150 contacts (teachers and youth leaders in Birmingham and the West Midlands). The project continue will continue in 2020 and 2021.

Feedback from young people, teachers and youth leaders:

"The drama and the mediation were great."

"Reminded me of feelings I've had and I thought I had nowhere to go"

"I felt less on my own with my mental health"

"I thought the work shops were Fabulous and enabled young people to explore mental health".

" Young people were engaged and informed . I thought the drama was very thought provoking."

" The young people really engaged and thoroughly enjoyed the sessions."

Lucy: Young and Homeless

LUCY: YOUNG AND HOMELESS consists on a stage play and a participatory drama workshop. LUCY: YOUNG AND HOMELESS reached 12 young people through a performance & workshop at St Basils Conybere Gardens (audience of young people living in temporary accommodation) in April 2018. A selfexplanatory educational pack and a campaign to raise awareness of knife rime was sent to our date base of 150 contacts (teachers and youth leaders in Birmingham and the West Midlands). 16 Performances of LUCY: YOUNG AND HOMELESS are booked in schools and youth centres for June, September and November 2019.

Feedback: "I enjoyed the play very much! I was inspired by the actors and moved emotionally by the performance. (...) they enjoyed the hot seating activity and it really got the students thinking deeply about what they had seen and how it could have been prevented. Having two homeless people with different stories and giving students opportunity to know what to do if they found themselves in that situation was really good"

Treasurer's report Financial review: With a total income of £58,596, 2019 saw a continued effort from Sudden Productions to raise further finances to carry out their work. 2018 had been a wonderful year for Sudden Productions which had seen a huge rise of income from £34,132 in 2017 to £56,877 in 2018. It was paramount for Sudden Productions to achieve to raise a similar income in order to plan appropriately for upcoming projects and bring its productions to those who have limited access to conventional theatre. Much remains to be done in 2020 and we are greatly reassured by the quality of the artists and the many individuals and organisations who all served Sudden Productions with vigour in 2019. Interest in, and demand for, the organisation 's work continues to grow and new partnerships have been developed, may funding be raised to support this interest.

Reserves Policy: Income and expenditure of the charity fluctuates according to the pattern of grants. Projects are on-going and are heavily supported by volunteers throughout the year. When funds are not available projects sometimes continue with artists being paid when funds are available. The Charity has a project manager employed per project only, artists are also hired per project and financial commitments are limited.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities: The Trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and financial statements for each financial year, in accordance with the Charities Act 2011, the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, which give a true and fair view of the incoming resources and application of the resources of the group during the year and the charity's state of affairs at the end of the financial year. In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice had been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

These guidelines run alongside the Company's constitution.
