Religious activities:

Services were held regularly on Erev Shabbat by Dr Peter Lee until December 2018, subsequently either by Dr Joseph Bard or Mr John Mitchell, and Shabbat morning by Dr Joseph Bard with assistance from Mr John Mitchell when his health permitted, and also with the help of visiting ministers and lay visitors. Attendance improves when friends and tourists visit at holiday times. Services were conducted for all festivals and holy days. High Holy Day services were conducted by Dr Joe Bard and Mr. J. Mitchell with the assistance of guest officiants. Available for advice and help by e-mail are Revd Elkan Levy (Israel) and by telephone, Rabbi David Lister (Edgware). Also available for help and advice is the Office of the Chief Rabbi under whose auspices the Congregation operates.

Visiting Ministers:

We are assisted by Ministers and Rabbis who visit to lead services and provide counsel. This is an illustration of the high esteem that this venerable Synagogue continues to command in the community at large.

Website:

Our very active and much praised website (<http://www.plymouthsynagogue.com>) continues to be managed by Mrs. Anna Kelly.

Community work: Plymouth City Council values the presence in the City of the Jewish community which has a very long history in the City of Plymouth. Mr Sibley continued with his lectures (in his own time) to the general public, organisations and visiting schools. In the year 2018-19, a total of 1525 adults and 2026 children visited the synagogue, the former mainly in groups such local U3A, WI etc. the latter mainly from local schools, a great increase on last year. In addition Mr. Sibley also welcomed an increased number of visitors to the Lambhay Hill historic Jewish cemetery. The Trustees have an ongoing pleasure in acknowledging the very special contribution that Mr Sibley makes in welcoming all the visitors to the Synagogue. It is to his credit that the maintenance of the Lambhay Hill cemetery has become self-financing through visitor donations.

The Plymouth Hebrew Congregation has taken part in the annual Plymouth City History Festival which takes place throughout May. The Synagogue hosts a package of events whose success is due principally to Mr Jerry Sibley, Mrs Anna Kelly, Dr Judith Beckman and Dr Joe Bard along with others.

Dr Beckman is still a Jewish Faith Speaker in schools for the Plymouth Centre for Faiths and Cultural Diversity.

The Community takes an active role in the City's Holocaust Memorial Day events which take place in the City.

Mrs. Anna Kelly represents the Jewish community as a Trustee of the Council sponsored Plymouth Centre for Faiths and Cultural Diversity.

Disabled Access

Both the Synagogue and the Vestry buildings are accessible to wheelchair users through the provision of ramps and this facility receives a gratifying amount of use.

Public Benefit Statement: The report of the activities above demonstrates that the Trustees have complied with their duty in exercising their powers or duties, to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit which is published by the Charity Commission.

Financial Review: The Plymouth Hebrew Congregation consistently runs on the basis of either a surplus of income over expenditure or income approximately equalling expenditure. All our bank accounts remain in credit.

Income is derived from subscription payments by members of the Congregation, voluntary donations, grants for special projects, rent on the Gifford Place Cemetery Lodge and income from investments in the M&G Charifund which produces a regular 5% return.

Declarations

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees report above

Note 16 Heritage assets

Please complete this note if the charity has heritage assets

16.1 General disclosures for all charities holding heritage assets

(i) Explain the nature and scale of heritage assets held.

The Congregation owns Heritage Assets - the freehold of the Synagogue, the Vestry Building, and two cemeteries, one of which contains a two bedroomed lodge (which is let out at present), and a Ohel. The Congregation also owns various silverware, miscellaneous scrolls and tapestries. Due to the nature of the assets, it is not practical to state their market value.

(ii) Explain the policy for the acquisition, preservation, management and disposal of heritage assets.

The Congregation acquires Heritage Assets only when these come up for sale and are of importance to the Congregation, and these are then purchased to preserve them if they can be afforded. The Congregation's policy is to preserve and manage the Heritage Assets for the future - funds are expended on preservation when it is necessary to do so. Heritage Assets are only disposed of when it is considered that the benefit to the long term financial future of the Congregation outweighs the significance to, and use of, those Assets in the day to day operation of the Congregation.

16.8 Heritage assets (where heritage assets are not recognised on the balance sheet)

(i) Explain the reason why heritage assets have not been recognised on the balance sheet.	Because, due to the nature of the Assets it is not practical to value them and recognise them.
(ii) Describe the significance and nature of heritage assets.	The Assets are of historical and religious importance. The Plymouth Synagogue is a synagogue in the city of Plymouth, England. Built in 1762, it is a Listed Grade II* building and the oldest extant synagogue built by Ashkenazi Jews in the English speaking world. The Heritage Assets consist of the freehold of the Synagogue, the Vestry Building, and two cemeteries, one of which contains a two bedroomed lodge, and a Ohel. Also, various silverware, miscellaneous scrolls and tapestries.
(iii) Disclose information that is helpful in assessing the value of heritage assets.	See (ii) above, and (iv) below.
(iv) Explain the reason why it is not practicable to obtain a valuation of heritage assets.	Other than a bricks and mortar valuation for insurance purposes, it is not possible to obtain a true valuation of the Heritage Assets. Their value is so much more than the simple bricks and mortar valuation to the Jewish Community which the assets serve, and to the wider Community as a whole.

Note 25 Fair value of assets and liabilities

The Congregation manages its limited income very carefully to ensure that day to day operational costs can be covered and seeks to separately fund raise via grants and donations for specific projects, often relating to the preservation of Heritage Assets, when those projects need to be undertaken. The only debtors are prepayments and the Gift Aid tax claim payable by HM Revenue and Customs, all of which do not carry risk.

25.2 Please give details of the amount of change in the fair value of basic financial instruments (debtors, creditors, investments (see section 11, FRS 102 SORP)) measured at fair value through the SoFA that is attributable to changes in credit risk.

Note 29Additional Disclosures

The following are significant matters which are not covered in other notes and need to be included to provide a proper understanding of the accounts. If there is insufficient room here, please add a separate sheet.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Plymouth Hebrew Congregation

I report on the accounts of the Plymouth Hebrew Congregation for the year ended 31st March 2019, which are set out on pages 1 to 7.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required for an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present "a true and fair" view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:-

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act;

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
