Mission statement

The Stephens and George Centenary Charitable Trust puts young people at the heart of what we do and we will support them in their own ideas and passions in order to leave their own legacies within the community.

This is what we, at the Trust, strive for on a daily basis.

Chairperson report

It is with continued pleasure to be here as Chairperson of the Charitable Trust.

Our initatives are bearing fruit. The Charity's Financial Statements continue to show a positive upwards trend, with regard to funding, reserves and income.

We contine to cut our costs and outgoings whilst still delivering all of the services that we set out in our mission statement, and our aim is to be self sufficent within 5 years.

Helen and her staff highlighted literacy standards and consequently implemented vital procedures and influenced community behaviour, they are continuing to change cultural and social behaviour, which will without doubt change our society from one of poor literacy and poor personal demeanour, to a society of young people in the next generation, whose life skills, literacy and expectations will be far greater than we have had for several generations in Merthyr Tydfil.

Vanessa Jones, Chair.

Life is better when everyone can read well and express themselves confidently

The Trust recruits, trains and supports volunteers to provide one-to-one literacy support at nurseries and primary schools to children who have fallen behind with their reading.

Trained reading support volunteers transform the lives of the children they interact with, turning them into confident, passionate and able readers.

The Trust has a robust training programme and are supported by the reading support mentor. We are also members of WCVA, VAMT & CWVYS and Chwarae Play so have access to professional training.

Childrens' earliest experiences define their outcomes in childhood and into adult life and those who fall behind before school often struggle to catch up. So, if we are looking to change the odds for the most disadvantaged children and improve their life chances, then we must focus on their early years.

The Trust impacts on over 80 young people per week through the initiative.

CHESS INITIATIVE

The initiative is run in 13 schools in Merthyr Tydfil reaching out to over 350 children a week.

The Chess Initiative is supported by the Waterloo Foundation who fund the programme to extend into PRU units and Greenfield Special Needs School.

"More than 1 in 5 children are classified as Special Needs, chess has had a dramatic impact on their lives. It is exactly these children who will gain from chess. Improving their concentration levels which helps them to learn and develop in school raising their attainment levels".

Chess has an important place in the life of Merthyr schools. No less than thirteen schools take part in our chess initiative, either by having lessons in class or through running lunchtime or after school clubs. The sessions are run by Russell Doddington or Hannah Richmond who has recently joined the team.

The aim of the initiative is to use chess to help develop children's thinking and learning skills. Through chess, they learn to solve problems, plan ahead, communicate effectively, learn from experience by recognising patterns, as well as gaining valuable social skills through playing and working together (and against each other of course). These skills not only help them with their work but offer them the chance to learn positive lessons for life.

Our chess syllabus is geared toward developing reasoning skills rather than simply learning the moves (for example, children are taught to look for choices and consider consequences and to plan ahead) and several cross-curricular skills and 'life skills' (for example by working together to achieve an aim) are developed.

As well as lessons, children are given opportunities to play competitively so that they can learn to win and lose well.

As a result of the work done in schools, Merthyr children have begun to participate in tournaments outside of their school. Local tournaments allow contact with parents. We also run a very successful tournament for schools in the Chess Initiative at the end of the academic year. All Wales tournaments allow children to match themselves against stronger and more experienced players. In both cases, horizons are widened and opportunities to make friends outside their immediate circles arise.

Merthyr children have begun to achieve success in Welsh junior chess competitions. Last year, Caedraw PS came second in the Welsh Primary Schools' Chess Championships and this year's joint under 11 Welsh Girls' champion also comes from that school. Several children did well in the second South Wales stage of the Delancey UK Schools' Chess Challenge (in which about 40,000 children take part nationwide).

With children, the chief measure of success is 'smiles on faces' and if that is what counts then we certainly succeed. However, we also get a steady stream of appreciative comments from schools as to the effect the activities have on the children, especially during lessons. And although the chief aim of the initiative is not to produce champions, it has been encouraging to see a number of schools and individuals do well in tournaments on a Wales-wide level. Some children have even gone on to represent Wales in their age group in matches against English regions or other countries.

The following schools have chess taught in lesson time:

Abercaniad Primary School, Caedraw Primary School, Gellifaelog Primary School, Greenfield School, Heolgerrig Primary School, Troedyrhiw Primary School, Ynysowen Primary School.

The following schools have clubs either during lunchtime or 'after school':

Abercanaid Primary School, Cyfarthfa Park Primary School, Cyfarthfa High School, Gwaunfarren Primary School, St Mary's RC Primary School, St Illtyd's RC Primary School, Ysgol Santes Tudful.

Ambassador Adams

This year Michael Adams British Champion became the Ambassador of the Stephens and George Charitable Trust Chess Initiative.

A foreword from Michael Adams:

I was pleased and honoured to become an ambassador for the Stephens and George Charitable Trust. I recently had the opportunity to visit Caedraw Primary School School as part of their Chess in Schools programme, to give a simul and show some chess puzzles as part of another project I am working on. The simul comprised of children from several schools, and there were a number of strong young players including Alex, Tabitha, Rio, Anshul, Jack and Nellie. The last of the games finished just shortly before the playing hall was due to be transformed, in a spectacularly efficient and seamless manner, into the canteen for lunch!

I was interesting to learn about the school's great success in Jaguar Primary School Challenge UK Final, a competition to design a 3D race car from scratch, where they won 4 out 6 the six categories. There was a strong crossover with players who were successful in the South Wales Megafinals of the Delancy Chess Challenge. It is interesting to consider whether the two activities improve each other.

Background on Michael Adams

Michael Adams is an English chess grandmaster. His highest ranking is world No. 4, achieved several times from October 2000 to October 2002. His peak Elo rating is 2761. He has achieved good results in World Chess Championship tournaments. Several times a World Championship Candidate, he reached the semifinals in 1997, 1999 and 2000. At the 2004 FIDE Championship, he reached the final, narrowly losing out to Rustam Kasimdzhanov in the tie-break games. He is also a seven-time British Chess Champion.

VOLUNTEER PROGRAMME

We offer a range of training opportunities through the projects that we host. Run alongside this is accredited courses, youth work and play qualifications.

In the last year a number of our volunteers have gone on to full time employment in Schools, Accountancy firms, Youth work settings, Production line and office work at Stephens and George Print Group and other community projects as well as being employed at the Charitable Trust.

The Trust helps and develops placement students from Cardiff University undertaking a youth work degree.

The Trust would like to congratulate Elin Howells who has achieved a 1st Class Bachelors of Arts with Honors in Youth and Community Work. Elin had completed her final year at Cardiff Metropolitan University following a year's placement with the Trust. Well done Elin, we are very proud of you and wish you every success for your future career.

George Hall states that "volunteering at the Charity has helped me gain my Level 2 Youth Work and Level 2 and 3 Playwork. I have also gained experience of how an organisation works as well as gaining confdence and improving self esteam. Volunteering has enabled me to work towards a career I enjoy".

The Trust has impacted on the lives of over 120 volunteers in 2018-2019 raising their life chances, their confidence as well as their qualifications and experience in youth work and play.

SPREAD THE WORD LITERATURE FESTIVAL

The Festival is now the largest event celebrating World Book Day in the UK.

The event each year is themed and there are over 120 workshops. The Trusts takes over Merthyr Tydfil Town Centre and pops up the festival in 19 venues. (http://www.walesonline.co.uk/whats-on/family-kids-news/merthyrs-spread-word-festival-return-10727878)

As well as reconstructing a themed area for children with street performers, props, marquees. Community Service partner with the Trust on the Festival, making all the props for the Festival from recycled materials, the materials are donated by Stephens and George Print Group. https://www.walesonline.co.uk/whats-on/arts-culture-news/offenders-create-wonderland

The Event commences with over 1000 children parading through the streets dressed as characters of books lead by street performers and musicians.

The Trust aim is to raise young people's life chances and the festival acts as a springboard showcasing opportunities and careers.

Last years theme was all about the Great Outdoors and the Charity partnered with Clybiau Plant to make dens. Giant sized dinosaurs roamed the town as well as over 40 authors, poets and illustrators who enthused the young people.

The Spread the Word Festival is supported by the Art Council of Wales.

BABY BOOKWORM PROJECT

Baby Bookworm is a literacy project run at the Stephens and George Charitable Trust, set up to encourage early literacy and inspire a love of words.

Literacy is key to individuals being able to actively participate and confidently communicate in the language rich world in which we live. When we can communicate confidently with spoken and written language, we can engage with the world for social, academic, economic and other benefits. Literacy is crucial to the success of individuals.

Early literacy includes speaking and listening skills such as taking turns, exploring sounds, sharing and collaboration, reflecting, following a story and looking at a book. These skills are best learnt in a social environment and pre-school children benefit from being in a sociable group where they can enjoy these experiences and become confident with their peers. The project aims to provide interactive, multi-sensory activities in a language-rich environment that promotes positive relationships, supports language development and nurtures a love of language and books and prepares participants for school and beyond.

Baby Bookworm sessions consist of interactive and multi-sensory activities in a language-rich environment, promoting positive relationships, supporting language development and nurturing a love of language and books. We encourage parents and carers to actively engage with their child and enjoy the stories, songs and activities together and to share stories and songs at home. The sessions are a great way to meet new parents and carers and to share experiences and build support networks.

After five sessions every child receives a completed Baby Bookworm certificate that enables them to have a free book donated by the publishers Bloomsbury, Simon and Schuster, Little Tiger Press and Penguin.

During our Baby Bookworm sessions, participants enjoy healthy snacks.

The project also delivers sessions to local Primary School pupils and their parents. This support is aimed at developing literacy skills with activities which follows the Early Years Foundation Phase.

Tuesday: Baby Bookworm

An active session aimed at babies and the very young, encouraging parents and carers to take part in activities that promote speaking and listening skills. This includes active play and games, stories and song, drama and free flow imaginary play, cwtching up with a book and sharing stories and songs. We design a craft based on the story's themes that helps children to think creatively, explore materials and parts, learn new concepts and vocabulary and practise pre-writing, encouraging fine and gross motor skills.

Tuesday Afternoon: Helping Your Child Become a Bookworm

5 week Schools Programme

Designed to help parents support their child's literacy development. Each week has a skill focus, including: Exploring books, questioning, predicting, key words and sounds, text orientation, prewriting skills and games, and storytelling.

Thursday Morning: Baby Bookworm at the Salvation Army

Delivered as part of the Salvation Army's playgroup session, children enjoy a story and then create artwork that explores the story's themes. The sessions take place in the Salvation Army's hall in Merthyr and enables the charity to have a good outreach with families from all the town.

Thursday Afternoon: Baby Bookworms Out To Lunch

This session is enjoyed by pre-school children and children who have started to go to morning nursery. It focuses on meal times being a social time for talk and sharing, and it encourages families to try new foods and enjoy healthy cooking. The session also includes story, song and craft.

School Holidays: Holiday Fundays

We also run camps throughout holidays which invite the Baby Bookworms and their siblings to enjoy stories and play that are based on a theme. Books are bought from publishing houses at a great discount and sold as part of the events and this is one way for us to generate funds.

"I started to take my little boy to Baby Bookworm when he was 7 months old, it has been wonderful to see him grow up with the other children and now be ready for school. It helped with his English and as an only child, his friendships with others."

"We both look forward to these sessions, it's a joy to share such a well structured and enjoyable morning — can't wait to come back!"

"Baby Bookworm helped my child progress so much for pre-school – which she absolutely loves"

"One of the most lovely and well organised and structured groups we have been to"

Baby Bookworm is coordinated by childrens' author and Early Years specialist, Sarah Kilbride and a team of volunteers who all bring a wealth of skills and experience.

Sarah is an Early Years teacher with experience of working in special schools and mainstream primary and secondary schools. Her skills include planning and delivering sessions tailored to participants' needs, Makaton sign language, and using drama to support learning.

Sarah is the author and creator of the series Princess Evie's Ponies and Being a Princess is Very Hard Work. Her latest book, A Cuddle and a Cwtch reached number 3 in the Welsh Book Council's Picture Book chart! Sarah has a useful network of authors, editors and publicists at major publishing houses that gives the charity access to discounts and book deals and contacts with regards to author visits and workshops.

In 2018-2019 Lucy Owen Became the Ambassador for the Baby Bookworm Project.

Lucy Owen, TV news presenter Lucy is regularly welcomed into our homes as part of the BBC's Wales Today and X-Ray programmes.

She joined HTV Wales in 1995 as a newsreader for regional opt-outs during GMTV, and between 1996 and 2007, she co-presented Wales Tonight, the regional news programme, broadcast on ITV Wales from Cardiff.

Lucy Owen has penned numerous childrens books including a new childrens' called Sea House and she has run workshops at the Spread the Word Festival to enthuse the Young People.

NEWSLETTER PROJECT

The Newsletter project is supported by Stephens and George Print Group and Children in Need.

The magazine is written by young people for young people from the age of 10 to 25 years, and is an innovative way to inspire and engage with young people to develop their interest and ability in reading and writing.

The Project supports aspiring writers and journalist in their ambitions and provides young people with empowering opportunities that improve their literacy skills.

As part of the project our creative writers and voluntary interns have the opportunity to meet iconic Welsh figures such as Jonny Duddle the Harry Potter illustrator, Politicians and Scientists. Trips to visit the Banksy Artwork, a graffitti tour and visit to the Hay Festival.

The Young people write about their experiences, design the questions and it is a fantastic way to educate young people with alternative opportunities, who may consider working within journalism or creative writing.

THE BOOK SHOP AND BOOK DONATION SCHEME

The Trust aim is to raise literacy standards in Merthyr Tydfil and to make books accessible to all, the absence of a book shop in Merthyr Tydfil would have resulted in people in the community travelling outside the area.

The shops sells in the main second hand books donated from the general public, as well as 28 companies across Merthyr Tydfil such as the Welsh Assembly, Merthyr Tydfil County Council, The Orbit Centre, ASDA, Local Authority etc.

The Charity has an online eBay account as well as selling books on Ziffit, Music Magpie etc. and is run solely by volunteers.

We have become members of the Booksellers Association and this year we have expanded our Author School Tours to primary and secondary schools.

We have had PG Bell launch his new book at the Charity, Helen Lipscombe visited local schools and the amazing Thomas Lennon from Hollywood who enthused and inspired the young people around his stories of Hollywood and the film he wrote "Night at the Museum".

The Charity donates books Free of Charge to children in need or who do not have a book at home as part of its initiative to raise literacy standards.

DOWLAIS COMMUNITY CENTRE

In 2016 the trust asset transferred the Dowlais Community Centre and has been able to develop its initiatives and ethos of the charity.

The Trust has developed the Community Centre and it has now become a hub in the local community with an array of classes and tutors and partnership agencies using the building from the Carers Association, PRU Unit, Home Schooling, Archery, Boxing Gym, the Urdd and lots more.

Community hubs can benefit the community in many more ways than only providing services. They can:

- · Help build more cohesive and resilient communities
- Build better and more integrated services
- Transform existing, unused buildings
- Provide a focus for community-led regeneration

The Trust has received funding to create a Community Café and a more environmentally friendly building with Windows in the main hall providing natural light.

The Trust is striving every day to be a sustainable facility and hope that these improvments will enable us to achieve this.

Over 1000 people in the Community utilise the building on a weekly basis and it has become a hub in the local community.

YOUTH CAMPS AND CLUBS

The Trust runs a well established Play project and Youth project in Merthyr Tydfil and are members of CWYVYS, Boys and Grls Club of Wales, as well as Clybiau Plant.

At the Youth Club & Half-Term Camps, there is a no computer and no phone policy and the focus of learning is around Arts, Literature, the outdoors, cooking, sport and gardening.

The Trust partners with with Cybiau Plant to train volunteers to become qualified playworkers.

The Project is funded for three years by Children In Need and through the ethos of play, Newsletter project and the outdoors we support young people to improve their life choices, well-being, and how they feel about themselves.

The Trust has worked with over 250 Children this year on the Youth and Play Clubs and Summer Camp programme improving young peoples life chances by giving them opportunities and new skills.

CREATIVE LIBRARIES

The Trust has created themed libraries within several schools in the area; its goal — to encourage reading and writing as a form of creative self-expression is perfectly embodied in the creation of the Narnia Library and the Alice in Wonderland workrooms at the Goetre school in the Gurnos Estate, an outdoor theme at Greenfield School.

Young people are provided with an imaginative, beautiful surrounding which encourages them to read and write on their own initiative and shares the power and enjoyment that the written word can bring. These libraries were created from scratch using only donated materials and the time and resources of local residents who were entrusted with the goals of the Trust.

In order to cultivate a society in which an appreciation of reading and writing is prevalent and to encourage these media forms of creative self-expression, the Trust has created a series of imaginatively themed creative spaces for young people.

Allowing young people to be immersed in a literary and visually stimulating environment allows them the opportunity to discover literature in their own way and at their own pace. These spaces encourage them to consider picking up a book or writing a short story in these beautiful spaces instead of switching on the television.

The spaces have all been created from donated and recycled material, which ties in directly with MTCBC Re-use scheme. Volunteers donated their time and talent to build the spaces up from literally nothing but an empty room. Several of these volunteers have gone on to full time employment as a result of their work on these projects.

The Stephens & George Centenary Charitable Trust has been running since February 21st 2012 in response to the incredibly low literacy levels in the local community. The Trust's core aims are to provide future generations with the means to develop skilled, useful and fulfilling careers for themselves from within one of the UK's most disaffected areas.

As the Trust reaches the end of this year it begins to expand further into the community, collaborating with the local authority in basic skills workshops for second language English speakers. The forthcoming project aims to work with the parents of children whose second language is English and who may struggle in school as a result in this.

Looking to the future the Trust's long term goals involve forming a productive alliance with other local PLCs, private companies and government agencies to tackle the educational apathy and to turn around attitudes towards self-improvement in the local community. The trust recognises that communities have the ability to turn themselves around and provide solutions to their own problems if provided with adequate resources, motivation and opportunities.

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Pension costs and other post-retirement benefits

The charity operates a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions payable to the charity's pension scheme are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities in the period to which they relate.

Debtors

Trade and other debtors are recognised at the settlement amount after any trade discount offered. Prepayments are valued at the amount prepaid net of any trade discounts due.

Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and cash in hand includes cash and short term highly liquid investments with a short maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition or opening of the deposit or similar account.

Creditors and provisions

Creditors and provisions are recognised where the charity has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably. Creditors and provisions are normally recognised at their settlement amount after allowing for any trade discounts due.
