Governance and management

The charity is a company limited by guarantee and registered charity. It is operated under the rules of its memorandum and articles of association dated. It has no share capital and the liability of each member in the event of winding-up is limited to £1.

The trustees of Our Sansar are recruited principally in two ways; via our networks and through targeted recruitment, particularly when we identify a gap in our skills. All new trustees are given information about the charity and provided with an induction pack that explains the rights and responsibilities of being on a board. All new trustees are requested to submit a CV and are then interviewed prior to appointment. They are then invited to attend a board meeting and are voted on by the members.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

Our partners and memberships

We are working closely with local organisations in Nepal and have formed working partnerships with GAN Nepal, DYC, CWIN, Child Rescue Nepal, a number of organisations/children's homes working with street children, local authorities in Nepal, local schools in Hetauda and Birgunj, and a number of others that we consult whilst working on our projects. We are a development partner of A4ID.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The charity's objects are:

- a) The relief of poverty, hardship and distress of the public anywhere in the world by the provision of goods and materials
- b) To advance education for the benefit of the public, by the provision of teacher and trainer placements and other educational services in developing countries
- c) For any such other purposes deemed charitable by the law of England and Wales as the trustees from time to time determine

Mission statement

We envision a world where all children have the opportunity to live a fulfilling and happy life.

We work to provide education, welfare and shelter to the most disadvantaged children for whom little or no other help is forthcoming.

Significant activities

Our Sansar was founded in February 2009 and formally registered with the Companies House in June 2009 and with the Charity Commission in October 2009. We have reviewed all our activities as per the Operational Plan. The review looked at the success of each programme and activity and the benefit it has had on communities in Nepal with the current focus on street children, other children from less privileged backgrounds and education.

The year ending 31 March 2019, was an extremely busy year for Our Sansar. We continued to improve our children's home for street children in Birgunj, we opened a day care centre for street children in the centre of Birgunj in July 2018 and formed a partnership with the Birgunj municipality to run a child helpline there to assist even more children. We acquired the toll free number and officially opened the child helpline in July 2019 and that way we are able to assist many children in Province 2 and beyond.

We stayed focused on linking the children with their families whenever possible and providing the best possible care for our boys. We also organised a number of events in Nepal and involved local community in our project.

We have referred to the guidance in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aims and objectives and in planning our future activities. Our current development programme continues to contribute to the aims and objectives we have set.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

2018/19 was an extremely busy and eventful year for Our Sansar and we delivered against the majority of the objectives set in our plan. Our team consists of 11 members of core staff, all working on a voluntary basis, and a number of volunteers helping out with various tasks on ad hoc basis. We also have 14 paid members of local Nepalese staff working on the ground, including one of our former children who has now grown up, is attending college and is working part time at the children's home.

Thanks to funding from trusts, campaigns and individual donations last year we managed to get involved in quite a few activities. Our children's home in Parwanipur, near Birgunj has developed into a fantastic project. At the moment there are 16 street children living there and we are planning to help many more. We have employed extra staff to do more outreach work and assist more children. All the children are receiving good education, extra curricular classes at the home such as dance, guitar, computer and cooking. We have linked further 4 boys with their families and are supporting their education and providing the families with extra help.

On the 12th April 2018, the International Day for Street Children, we organised an arts competition between various children's home. We had an arts professor giving the awards and all the children had an amazing time. They got very inspired and now they can't stop drawing and painting.

In July 2018 we opened a Day Care Centre for street children in Birgunj. The centre acts as a central point for street children to come, have food, classes, activities, counselling and some children stay over night. Our staff spend a few hours every morning on the streets talking to other children living there and trying to assist them as well. Following the success of the day care centre, we signed an MOU with the local government to run the child helpline in the district as well. We moved to a larger building and the helpline was officially launched in July 2019. At the day care centre/child helpline we assist on average 25 children everyday and we hope to help more and more. We have also helped in many cases of child labour in the city and are planning to work on that further with the mayor and other authorities.

We also had a number of volunteers visiting our projects and assisting with language classes, building chicken huts, gardening, painting, art, sports, music. The volunteers also greatly contributed to fundraising for our projects. Thanks to these efforts the children have gone on a couple of amazing trips that our returning volunteer has raised the money for.

Since February 2009 we have been in receipt of Google Grant which allows us to place advertisements worth $10000 every month on Google for free. Thanks to these advertisements we are able to reach a wider audience, raise awareness on the plight of street children and recruit volunteers to help with the projects in Nepal and promote our activities.

We have also been running a café in Kathmandu (The Café with No Name) to bring sustainable income for the projects in the future. The café is a separate legal entity but was solely set up to fundraise for Our Sansar. The café has been a great platform for us to meet new volunteers and donors and to raise awareness about Our Sansar and also about the situation of street children in Nepal. Many visitors to the café donated clothes, stationery, toiletries and sports equipment for our boys – thus saving us a lot of money. The café has also provided work experience to our older boys from the children's home during their school holidays and they loved it.

2018/19 was a fantastic year for us – extremely busy but really rewarding. We have advanced necessary work for the success of Street Children's Home and Day Care Centre projects. We have also formed a great partnership with the local government to open a child helpline and now we can reach most children needing assistance in the district. We also delivered against a number of our objectives. And most importantly, we ensured that all the children we are assisting are happy and have great prospects in the future. There is still a lot of work to be done but I am confident that if we keep up our hard work, we will achieve all our objectives in the next year.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The Trustees consider that, in future, the level of unrestricted reserves should be approximately equivalent to the charity's organisational expenditure for 3 to 6 months. The Trustees will also from time to time apply unrestricted reserves to specifically designated funds when considered appropriate. However, if necessary, access to the designated funds will be permissible for the general meeting of the charity. Restricted funds given to Our Sansar for a specific, identifiable purpose will not be accessible for the general running of the charity.

Financial review

We received last instalment of the BFSS grant (£2500 of £19,910) for the joint project with Child Rescue Nepal towards our teacher training projects. Parvathi Foundation donated £1350 towards the education of our boys in Birgunj. We are hoping to make a long term partnership. We also received a number of individual and corporate donations, these mainly came from smaller campaigns that our supporters organised for us, and also through some of our volunteers that have visited the projects and then in return raised funding for us.

We also continue to receive the Google Grant which allows us to place advertisements worth $10,000 on Google every month. Thanks to this grant we are able to find experienced teachers, promote our events and get sponsors for children from poorest families in Nepal. We also received PR support worth £2000.

At the moment all UK staff members work on a voluntary basis.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

We have planned a number of fundraising activities for 2019/20 to secure sufficient funding for the projects. We will be celebrating the International Street Children's Day on the 12th April 2020 with a number of activities aimed at raising awareness or fundraising. We are also focusing on digital fundraising campaigns and assistance from online platforms such as Global Giving, that has been invaluable so far, and we are planning to expand on those to reach the maximum number of potential supporters.

We will continue running and improving our café in Kathmandu to ensure Our Sansar gets more and more exposure and that it receives more and more funding from the cafe.

We will continue to run and improve our Day Care Centre and the Child Helpline, are hopeful that we can open a new transit home for street children in Janakpur in 2020.

We are planning to expand our corporate partnerships this year to allow us expand our Education Programme and our street children's projects.

PUBLIC BENEFIT STATEMENT

Our main activities in 2018/19 were aimed at relieving poverty and advancing education for the benefit of the public. The projects are carefully chosen depending on the area and the community needs. At the moment our activities benefit over 4800 students from impoverished backgrounds in Birgunj, and Hetauda, 50 street children through the Children's Home project, and 25 children every day through our child helpline/day care centre project. Soon we will be able to cover the whole of Province 2 thus benefiting a larger amount of street children.

We have strengthened our Children's Home project in Nepal to provide shelter, food and education to street children and then to expand the project nationally. We opened a Day Care Centre and Child Helpline in Birgunj. At the beginning of 2018 we finished our transit home project for children affected by the earthquake and other children needing emergency shelter in Dhading Besi. We are still monitoring the progress of the children that were assisted by that project. All our charitable activities focus on delivering against these aims.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF OUR SANSAR LIMITED

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2019 comprising the statement of financial activities and balance sheet and the related notes 1 to 7

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees as a body, in accordance with section 43 of the Charities Act 1993 and regulations made under section 44 of that Act. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
