

TRUSTEES' REPORT

For the period 01 April 2018 – 31 December 2019

1. Introductory Note

This report accompanies the Charity's Accounts for 01 April - 31 March 2019 and describes the Charity's activities and development over the period 01 April 2018 – 31 December 2019.

2. About Saathi House

The Charity was founded in 1977 and was incorporated in 2006 with the following objects:

- 1 to promote any charitable purpose for the benefit of the community in areas of social and economic deprivation (particularly in metropolitan districts of the UK) and in particular the advancement of education, protection of health and the provision of facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation and leisure time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for such communities; and
- 2 the relief and prevention of financial hardship, poverty, distress and suffering, in the UK and anywhere in the world, with particular reference to countries of the developing world, acting alone or in association with others, by providing grants, education, training, residential courses, accommodation and all necessary support and assistance, with the ultimate aim of enabling individuals to generate sustainable income and stand on their own two feet.

Although no geographical limit is imposed on its activities, the Charity was originally established (as the Saint James Language Project) to address the extramural educational needs of younger members of the growing immigrant communities of Aston, Lozells and Perry Barr. In 1980 it became a registered charity, working with young people from Indian, Pakistani, Jamaican and Bangladeshi backgrounds. Over the last two years, the Charity's renewed activities have continued to be directed principally towards these communities, although most of its recent clients have been local women of Bangladeshi heritage.

3. Overview of programme work in 2017-2018

The period 01 April 2017 to 31 March 2019 has been very significant for the Charity, as it includes the first full year of its operation since its premises at 49 Bevington Road were fully reopened after four years of closure. Early in 2017, the Charity's board had been enlarged through the appointment of three new Birmingham-based trustees from educational, housing and legal sectors; and during the second, third and fourth quarters of 2017, the team of three part-time staff (Mashkura Begum, Interim Director; Shamsun Choudry, Project Officer; and Apsana Khatun, Bookkeeper) worked hard to develop bids and raise funds, in order to re-establish the charity as a significant force in Birmingham.

The first major project, for which HLF funding of £43,500 was secured, was Saathi Stories, an in-depth multimedia project documenting the 40-year history of the Charity in pictures, texts and documentaries. By recapturing Saathi House's history and heritage, new enthusiasm was generated for the refreshing and updating of its mission in a world that was much changed. The official re-launch took place on 10 May at Villa Park and included a tour of the Charity's urban exhibition and a dinner at 49 Bevington Road. The Saathi House Stories film was previewed, and a limited-edition, lavishly illustrated book was published.

The project also provided a confident start to calendar year 2018, which proved to be very productive. As well as continuing with its regular offering of Zumba, keep-fit and other well-being classes at 49 Bevington Road, the Charity secured a series of funding grants to undertake an increasingly sophisticated programme of education, training and skills development. These were as follows:

(1) Women's Vote Centenary Programme (funded by the Government Equalities Office)

Out of a total grant of £43,000 (awarded belatedly in March 2018, by which time the Centenary Year was well under way), £28,000 was spent on a diverse programme of activities including workshops on the UK's civic institutions and democratic processes; voter registration; the achievements of feminist campaigners; and conversations with civic leaders. The Government Equalities Office's project monitor praised the programme and drew attention to the Charity's decidedly grassroots approach to programme delivery, which ensured the participation of community members who are too often marginalised or excluded from more institutional learning programmes.

(2) Horticulture and Hydroponics (funded by the Smallwood Trust)

Funding of £5,000 was spent to end August 2019 on an ongoing programme of training and education in gardening, hydroponics and related entrepreneurship. The objective was to show how the smallest of urban spaces may be used to grow cultivate flowers, vegetables and shrubs, whether to enliven the environment, provide wholesome food or improve physical/mental health. A bazaar was held at 49 Bevington Road in May 2019.

(3) Creative English (funded by Faith Action)

Demand for these services is such that the funder has authorised the Charity to commit the remaining £5,000 (of an initial grant of £10,000) on designing and delivering courses for clients of Arabic, Maghreb and Somali heritage.

(4) Parenting Workshops (funded by the People's Postcode Lottery)

Of a total grant of £10,000, £5,000 was spent in 2019 on parenting and childcare classes.

(5) Near Neighbours (funded by Near Neighbours part of Church Urban Fund)

Of the five programmes run during 2018, this one is now closed. The grant of £5,000 was spent on workshops, led by independent mentors, on the subject of community cohesion and parenting.

(6) Bangla Classes (funded by Shahjalal Housing)

The Charity was granted £5,000 by Shahjalal Housing to deliver basic Bangla classes to young people aged 8 to 14. The funds supported weekly Bangla classes delivered on Saturdays by qualified teachers.

4. Profile raising and public engagement

The Charity has been steadily growing its reputation in Birmingham and West Midlands as a significant force in the third sector. Its numerous and diverse achievements have included:

- (1) The official re-launch of the Charity, which took place on 10 May 2018 at Villa Park and included a tour of the Charity's urban exhibition and a dinner at Saathi House. The HLF-funded documentary film was previewed, and a limited-edition Saathi House Stories was published (see Section 2 above).
- (2) Interim Director Mashkura Begum has been in dialogue with EPIM (European Programme for Integration and Migration) programme manager Sophie Ngo-Diep, who in late November 2018 confirmed that the Charity's Creative Language programme is among one of 18 initiatives (out of the 121 submitted to EPIM) to be offered a case study analysis. This will examine the impact of the initiative to date and possible scaling opportunities. Fundraising materials and strategic tools will be provided to help maximise the Charity's impact; and in late 2019 EPIM confirmed a further €12,000 funding for communications and capacity-building work.

- (3) In 2019 Saathi House delivered 40 weeks of activities and an exciting portfolio of activities and engaging c 70 local women on a weekly basis.
- (4) Through Creative English alone, Saathi House registered 132 service users in 2019.
- (5) Saathi House has established social media presences on Facebook and Twitter.
- (6) In September 2019, for the first time in Premier League history 15 hijab wearing Saathi House participants welcomed Aston Villa football players onto the pitch in front of 45k fans and were live televised on SKY Sports.
- (7) Saathi House was visited in 2019 by all the Senior Leaders from Commonwealth Games 2022 SLT.
- (8) The Charity has formed partnerships with Aston Villa Football Foundation, Legacy WM, Aspire and Succeed.
- (9) The Charity is currently collaborating with a well-established city-based music and entertainments business to promote a talent development programme for young artist in North West Birmingham
- (10) The Charity has secured funds from EPIM to refresh its website, systems and capacity and some exciting connections with other major philanthropy organisations in Europe
- (11) The Charity has started to optimise the use of its building and secured two sets of licensees.

5. Financial Management

The Charity has maintained a sound financial position, with a healthy surplus being generated. The Charity has also built up a substantial legacy sum over the last c. 20 years; and the freehold building at 49 Bevington Road that it owns outright forms a potentially valuable capital asset. Annual accounts for FY ending 31 March 2018 showed that the Charity's total net assets at that point amounted to just over £82,000. Accounts at 31 March 2019 showed an operating surplus of £3362 and total accrued funds of £92,588. As at the date of this report, additional funding has been secured sources of new and longer term funding have been identified and are being pursued with confidence, Big Lottery Fund and the European Programme for Integration and Migration and the Smallwood Trust among others.

6. Priorities for 2020 and beyond

The fact that so much has been achieved on very modest resources (three part time members of staff, all on short-term, individual project-based SLAs), and in the midst of a difficult economic climate for the third sector, is largely down to the Charity's programme manager, Mashkura Begum, and her colleagues Shamsun Choudry and Apsana Khatun, all of whom have worked with dedication and enthusiasm over the past two years to re-establish the Charity as a positive force for change. The Charity receives no regular financial support from any large funding body; it remains a very small enterprise; and its service offering is still evolving. Nevertheless, the body of knowledge and expertise that the Charity has built up, its sound finances and the growing recognition of its achievements among high level policy-makers, all indicate that the Charity can have a major role to play in helping its client communities to flourish in years to come.

The overriding objective is therefore to scale up the Charity and put it on a clear path towards medium-to-long term financial sustainability. To that end, staff and trustees will be working through Q1 2020 on an application to Big Lottery for revenue funding of c £50,000 over three years, on the strength of an ambitious business plan which will focus on (i) activities and programmes through wider partnerships; (ii) staff and resources; (iii) premises and infrastructure; and (iv) access to finance.

Additional and more specific priorities will be:

- To strengthen its partnerships with corporate sponsors including Aston Villa FC, Gowling and KPMG, all of whom have been providing informal support over the last 2 years.

- To design activity programmes which takes the Charity's mission beyond the local and mostly Bangladeshi clientele, to the wider BAME communities of North Birmingham.

7. Trustees

The period also saw significant changes at board level. There were the following resignations:

- Begum Momtaz resigned from the board on 6 April 2017
- Saidur Rahman resigned from the board on 25 January 2018
- Sally Underwood resigned in July 2018
- Suhel Obeda, long-standing chair, resigned from the board in on 16 January 2019

and the following admissions:

- Bashir Ahmed MBE of the Canal & River Trust joined the board in March 2018
- Paul Mountain took over as chair on 16 January 2019
- Shaista Mukadam of University of Central England joined the board on 25 September 2019 and
- Helga Edstrom of HM Government's Office for Civil Society joined the board on 19 November 2019

The two further trustee/board members are:

- Silina Chowdhry (appointed 4 April 2017); and
- Carol Roberts MBC (appointed 4 April 2017).

The Charity is fortunate to have a board of trustees from different parts of the community who can draw on a rich mix of skills and life experiences. Brexit notwithstanding, the Charity looks forward to 2020 and beyond in confident mood.

Recognition of income	These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the charity becomes entitled to the resources; it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources; and the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability. Offsetting	There has been no offsetting of assets and liabilities, or income and expenses, unless required or permitted by the FRS 102 SORP or FRS 102.	Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>	N/a <input type="checkbox"/>
