Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote, improve and advance education in, and appreciation of, the arts in particular but not exclusively through the provision and maintenance of an art gallery and the facilitation and management of artist studios.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The year's activities and objectives have been completed in line with our commitments to the Arts Council of England, from whom we received our grant/income and our charitable objectives. The charity has successfully produced 6 exhibitions that have been open to and very well attended by the local, national and international public. Alongside the ongoing cycle of solo exhibitions we have a programme of group shows, talks, performances and offsite events that are administered in the same way as the solo shows. Artists and participants associated with the program have received equal production and financial support and documentation of the exhibitions have been made public and equally advertised online through social media. Press texts and interpretative materials have been made available to the public both during the exhibition and on the gallery website. Feedback from the public, as well as user engagement has been recorded for internal use to assess efficacy of our communications and PR.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees have been informed of all their responsibilities and guidance issues by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The gallery has continued it's annual public programme with newly commissioned exhibitions and events to promote, improve and advance education in, and appreciation of, the arts.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity has met its objectives to promote the education of arts through the provision of challenging and critical art exhibitions and associated programme of public events. The financial budget has been adhered to and the charity has a net balance at the end of the year's activity. The charity will make an new application for a grant from the Arts Council of England to fund the next cycle of activity.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity does not currently hold reserves but if the charity underspends it may hold the remaining funds as a reserve to be used towards unexpected costs or future costs relating to the charitable activities of the program. In the event that the charity faces closure any reserves held will be in the charity account.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	We operate on a very tight budget. The budget we set out as part of our application for grants from the Arts Council of England necessitates balancing our income with our spending and does not allow for reserves.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23
